

MARYLAND

Maryland Office of Tourism • 401 E. Pratt Street, 14th Floor, Baltimore, Maryland 21202
Rich Gilbert • 410.767.6288 • rgilbert@visitmaryland.org • www.visitmaryland.org

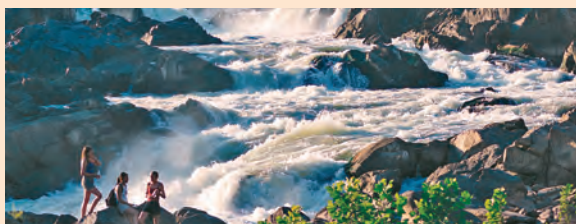

From the Allegheny Mountains,
to the Chesapeake Bay,
to the Atlantic Ocean, Maryland boasts a vast assortment of activities, unique attractions, and historical landmarks.

If you are developing tours for seniors, students, or individuals,
Maryland can help fill the bill.

Central Maryland Annapolis, Arundel Mills, Baltimore, Camden Yards, Ellicott City, Fort McHenry, Havre de Grace, Inner Harbor, Ladew Topiary Gardens, Medieval Times, National Aquarium in Baltimore, Savage Mill, U.S. Naval Academy, and Westminster

Eastern Shore Assateague, Cambridge, Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum, Chesapeake City, Chestertown, Crisfield, Denton, Easton, Ocean City, Salisbury, St. Michaels, Smith Island, Tilghman Island and Ward Museum of Wildfowl Art.

Capital Region Bethesda, College Park, Emmitsburg, Frederick, National Harbor, Rockville, Silver Spring, Six Flags America, Thurmont and Washington, D.C.

Southern Maryland Calvert Marine Museum, Chesapeake Beach, Historic St. Mary's City, La Plata, Patuxent Naval Air Station, Prince Frederick, Solomons and Waldorf

Western Maryland Adventure Sports Center International, Antietam National Battlefield, Cumberland, Deep Creek Lake, Fort Frederick, Frostburg, Hagerstown, Oakland, Penn Alps, Prime Outlets and Western Maryland Scenic Railroad

Services and Publications Offered

- State Travel Guide
- Highway Maps
- Maryland Made Easy -
Tour itineraries and Suggestions
- Maryland Field Trip Guide
- RFP Distribution
- Itinerary Planning

Type of Tours Available

- African-American Heritage
- Agricultural and Farm
- Boat Excursions
- Civil War
- Culinary and Dine Around
- Dinner and Performance Theaters
- Environmental
- Garden and Mansions
- Ghost
- Historic
- Red and Pink Hat
- Soft Adventure
- Student/Educational
- Trains and Transportation
- War of 1812/Star-Spangled Banner
- Wineries

Group Friendly Events

- American Craft Council Show (February)
- Delmarva Birding Weekend (April)
- Andrews Air Force Base Air Show (May)
- Maryland Sheep and Wool Festival (May)
- Preakness Celebration (May)

- Springfest (May)
- Wine in the Woods (May)
- Crab Feasts (May-October)
- Delmarva Chicken Festival (June)
- Ocean City Air Show (June)
- Kunta Kinte Celebration (August)
- Maryland State Fair (August)
- Seafood Feast-i-Val (August)
- Maryland Seafood Festival (September)

- Maryland Wine Festival (September)
- National Hard Crab Derby (September)
- Sunfest (September)
- Autumn Glory Festival (October)
- U.S. Sailboat and Powerboat Shows (October)
- Waterfowl Festival (November)
- Maryland Christmas Show (November-December)
- Winterfest (November-December)
- Antietam Illumination (December)

www.visitmaryland.org

Martin O'Malley, Governor | Anthony G. Brown, Lt. Governor