

FOLLOW PATHWAYS TO FREEDOM

Use this map to discover stories of brave souls who relentlessly fought for freedom.

A REGION DEFINED BY COURAGE

Central Maryland provided opportunities for the enslaved to flee to the north on foot, hide and blend into the free Black population on crowded streets, or find freedom by riding the rails or sailing away.

GO WHERE BRAVERY HAPPENED

Although flights to freedom were difficult and dangerous, Baltimore served as a vital hub of Underground Railroad and abolitionist activity. Find key locations on this map and embark on two self-guided walking tours around Baltimore's Inner Harbor and in Ellicott City.

Scan the code for detailed information about walking and driving tours of Underground Railroad sites in Central Maryland.

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD SITES IN CENTRAL MARYLAND AND THE UPPER CHESAPEAKE

- Union Mills Homestead
- Ellicott City Walking Tour
- Elkridge Furnace
- Savage Mill
- Reddy Gray Burial Site
- B&O Railroad Museum/Mount Clare Station
- Baltimore Inner Harbor Walking Tour
- Historic Baltimore County Jail
- Hampton National Historic Site
- Northern Central Railway-Torrey C. Brown Trail
- Hays-Heighe House
- Havre de Grace Maritime Museum
- Perryville Railroad Ferry and Station Site
- Turkey Point Farm and Lighthouse
- Chesapeake and Delaware Canal
- Mount Harmon Plantation

ELLICOTT CITY WALKING TOUR

1. Historic Howard County Jail
2. Howard County Courthouse, 1843
3. Museum of Howard County History
4. Historic National Road
5. Howard County Welcome Center

BALTIMORE INNER HARBOR WALKING TOUR

1. Camden Street Railroad Station
2. Residence of Underground Railroad Agent Thomas Skinner
3. Baltimore Visitor Center
4. USS Constellation
5. Dugan's Wharf: Site of Tilly's Rescue and Escape
6. Reginald F. Lewis Museum of African American History and Culture
7. President Street Railroad Station Museum
8. Frederick Douglass/Isaac Myers Maritime Park and Museum
9. Fells Point Historic District at Broadway Pier
10. Douglass Place

DISCOVER THE WHO, HOW AND WHERE OF FREEDOM

Courageous and resourceful icons like Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman battled not only for themselves and their loved ones but for thousands of others who were escaping slavery. These selfless, history-changing heroes are known as freedom seekers.

Scan the code to discover other freedom seekers, learn about Central Maryland's crucial role in the Underground Railroad, and find detailed driving and walking tours.

Wes Moore, Governor | Aruna Miller, Lt. Governor