The Confederates splashed northward invaders and protect Baltimore and Washington, D.C., along the “Pipe Creek Line.” Then they concentrate at Frederick, Maryland. Then they marched toward the Civil War’s most epic battles. And discover the stories of civilians who, for the first time, found themselves in the middle of the fighting. And explore the landscape for more than 140 years. The Gettysburg battlefield is a significant place for the American Civil War and the nation’s history. It is a national battlefield and a historic site. It is a place of remembrance and reflection for those who have served in the American Civil War. It is a place where we can learn about the events of the American Civil War and the people who lived through it.

Lincold Speaks at Gettysburg

Lincoln delivered the Gettysburg Address on November 19, 1863. The Gettysburg Address is a famous speech that is considered one of the most important speeches in American history. It was delivered in front of a crowd of people who had gathered to dedicate a national cemetery for soldiers who had died in the Civil War.

Medicine

The American Civil War was a time of unprecedented medical advances. For the first time, doctors had access to advances in technology and scientific knowledge that allowed them to treat injuries and diseases more effectively. The Union and Confederate armies were two of the largest and most well-equipped forces in history. They were equipped with the latest medical technology and medicines that were available at the time.

Lincoln Speaks at Gettysburg

President Abraham Lincoln delivered his famous speech, “The Gettysburg Address,” on November 19, 1863. The speech is considered one of the most famous and powerful addresses ever delivered. It is a call to action and a call to remember the sacrifices of those who fought and died in the Civil War.

SignalMen

For more information on the Civil War, recreation, and traveling in Maryland, please visit Maryland Civil War Trails

Travel Resources

For more information on the Civil War, recreation, and traveling in Maryland, please visit Maryland Civil War Trails